Chairman Wolfgang Coe

chair@baycon.org

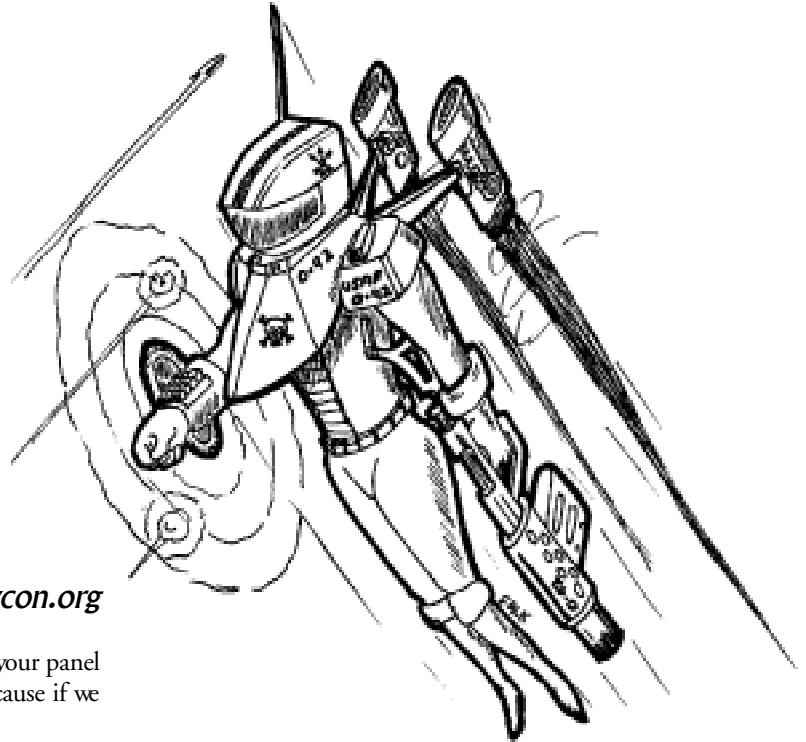

Greetings and Hallucinations,

Strange things are afoot at the DoubleTree. I hear tell there is going to be some odd happenings there. People wearing lots of enigmatic clothes and funny hair running around doing this and that. Lots of loud music, carrying on, good food (okay, mediocre food, but what can you do?), and a party with 2000 people. How else can you have that much fun? Okay, you got me there. But THAT activity is up to you. Did I mention that rooms are still available?

By the time you get this, it will probably be about six weeks before BayCon 2001. At this point, I am happy to tell you that everything is going GREAT! Things are beginning to take shape. Sunday's "D(r)ive-In Movie" is going to be none other than Galaxy Quest! We have great panel tracks coming together, cool guests, and the night life will be fantastic.

I am also excited about this year's charity, the Electronic Freedom Foundation. As more people are using e-mail and the Internet, it's nice to know there are people out there protecting our privacy and our right to use encryption.

One last thought. If you couldn't tell by looking at the cover, this year's theme is BayCon's Odd-I-See. So, this year is going to be a little off-kilter, a little different. Let's get this century off to the right start and send it wobbling on its merry way!

Programming

Amy-Elyse Patterson programming@baycon.org

Hi, BayCon Programming Fans!

Well, we've gotten a great response from you, with all of your panel suggestions and guest ideas. Please keep them coming, because if we can't use them this year, we can use them next year.

I feel I must apologize for something. Usually on the last day of the con, we hold a hiss and purr panel, and programming always gets the same complaint. "Too much good programming." So I tried to weed it down to "Just enough good programming," but we may have failed. I think we have again fallen into the trap of "too much." So, we're sorry. Maybe you can bring some more people with you to soak up the extra programming? I don't know; just a thought.

In addition to Rudy Rucker, Bill Hartman, Kathryn & James Stanley Daugherty and Poppy Z. Brite, we have confirmed the following guests (with more confirming every day):

Brenda Clough, Douglas E. Berry, Father John Blaker, RS Blum, Maya Kaathryn Bohnhoff, Michael Canfield, Lori Cole, Corey Cole, Erland Cole, Mary Nancy Cordero, Ctein, Hugh Daniel, Teresa Edgerton, Jonathan Fesmire, Jay Freeman, Christopher Garcia, ElizaBeth Gilligan, Brett Glass, Nancy Capulet, Sarah Goodman, Wanda Haight, Joy Oestricher, Dave Clark, Brian Bailie, Lori Buchanan, Mike Moscoe, Christine Doyle, Leland R. Erikson, Dorothy Heydt, Craig Howlett, Chris Knight, Angelena Kyzar-Crowhurst, Bridget Landry, Karey Leichel, Frank Lurz, Jane Mailander, Isobel Nichols, G. David Nordley, John O'Halloran, Diana L. Paxson, Irene Radford, Michael Sarkisian, Robert Schullenberg, Seth Shostak, Michael Siladi, Kevin Standlee, Brad Templeton, Ken Wharton, Deborah Wheeler, Trystan L. Bass, and Gerry Pearce.

So, we are all going to have fun. You should come have fun, too!

Family-Friendly Programming

Cheri Stryker family-friendly@baycon.org

All of the staff of Family-Friendly Programming are terribly excited. We're planning, arranging, and scheduling furiously! We have lots and lots of great ways for parents and kids to enjoy the con together, and have been thrilled with your positive response so far. We're planning crafts classes, a scavenger hunt, and a book exchange - bring in a book that perhaps is outgrown, and exchange it for a story you haven't encountered before! Just to reiterate the guidelines, so we all know where we stand:

- There will be lots of stuff for parents to enjoy with their kids!
- Parents/responsible adults must be present with a child who is wearing a kid-in-tow badge.
- Any kid-in-tow noticed without a matching adult will be turned over to hotel security. We want to make sure that everything is safe, as well as fun.

We can't wait to see you there!

Dealers' Room

We are looking forward to bringing you another fine group of vendors in the Dealers' Room. We've filled all of our tables, but if you'd like to be on the waiting list, please contact us through either the BayCon mailing address or dealers@baycon.org.

Here's the list of people you can expect to see (accurate as of April 8, 2001):

A Wrinkle in Time	Lothlorien Mythical Attire
Aerie Faerie	Magic Velvets
Alter Years	Myth & Magic
Angel Wear Creations	Other Change of Hobbit
Cargo Cult Books	QR Zed Engraving
Costuming by Aziza!	R.E. Carter Co.

Blood Drive

Michael Siladi

Once again, Stanford Blood Center will be accepting donations on Saturday, May 26, from 11:30 AM to 4:00 PM. The Bloodmobile will be parked at the hotel's main entrance.

Gaming

Tull Jordan

gaming@baycon.org

Well, here it is, PR#2 and an update from Gaming. We've gotten some events confirmed and more are still up in the air. BayCon will be hosting The Icehouse West Coast Tournament #3 (more on that below), and our room will be taken over by that group of non-stop gamers known simply as "The Guys Who Never Sleep," providing virtually 24-hour game opportunities. We are currently working on getting Decipher to return this year, as well as a Silent Death match. Also, we are more than happy to have anyone come to our gaming area and run their own experiments in mayhem. See you there.

ICEHOUSE — West Coast Icehouse 3 Tournament

Icehouse is a unique strategy game, a board game without turns — or even a board.

Games Magazine, who listed it in their Games 100 in 1993, described it as, "A game like no other!"

Players place pyramidal game pieces, in real-time, from storage into the field of play, with pyramids pointing upward representing defense, and lying on their side representing attacks. The game combines strategic thinking, light diplomacy, and some hand-eye coordination — and you've never played anything like it.

It was co-designed by Andy Looney (Fluxx, Chrononauts, Aquarius) and John Cooper (Zarcana), and the pieces are once again available from Looney Labs, as of November 1999; they have become a sort of game design toolkit.

There will be a teaching session before the tournament, so don't let the fact that you haven't played before stop you from signing up! Last year (for the second year in a row), a player who had never played before walked away with the trophy and prize (did we mention that there would be loot for the winning?) — you could be next!

Eric Zuckerman, your host, has been playing Icehouse avidly since 1992, was the CTI medalist at the 11th International Icehouse Tournament, and in 1999 staged West Coast Icehouse 1, the first-ever Icehouse tournament west of Ohio, at BayCon (which was also the home of WCI2 in 2000). He teaches and plays Icehouse every chance he gets; you may have seen him and his colorful little pyramids at California conventions in the past. He is also a charter member of the Mad Lab Rabbits, Looney Labs's volunteer cadre of games evangelists.

Con Suite

This year, Con Suite will be run by none other than Cloudboy the Byrd Slayer and Squidly (AKA Chaos and Mayhem, AKA Bill and Jason). We are already acquiring many fuzzy objects for our theme this year (once they clear customs). The rumors of a three-foot tall walking frog mumbling, "It's not easy being green" are unfounded, but we do have it on good word that the Klingon party will be having frog legs for at least one night. And pay no attention to the blue whatever-it-is and his friend the rat as they look for a cannon to be shot out of. Yes, it is time to start the music. Yes, it's time to light the lights. Yes, it's time to get things started, for it's the Muppet Show at Con Suite at nights.

During the day, however, things will be quiet as Animal will be locked away but you can still stop by and enjoy a break from the spotlights of the convention. We will be open as a quiet area during the day to sit, relax and strike up conversations with friends and strangers alike.

Meet the Guests

Come join us Friday night at our Meet the Guests Reception, where fans and guests can mingle, talk, meet, and plan government takeovers. We will be inaugurating our theme, "BayCon's Odd-I-See: Thinking Outside the Monolith" with a party dedicated to Homer's classic The Odyssey. Come and join us and have fun on Friday night.

Charity Casino Night

We have so many things happening on Friday night. At 9 PM, we will be hosting BayCon's Charity Casino Night. All are welcome to come out and try their hand at beating Lady Luck and help out our charity at the same time. Since this is a Charity Casino, no real money will pass between players and dealers. Con members of all ages are welcome with adult supervision. At the Casino, you can find blackjack tables, a roulette Wheel, and a craps table. Prizes will be available.

All proceeds from this event will be added to the charity auction's proceeds for BayCon 2001's charity, the Electronic Frontier Foundation. The buy-in is $5 for $25 worth of chips and one raffle ticket or $20 for $150 worth of chips and 5 raffle tickets. $5 worth of chips will be given to each BayCon member when they walk in the door.

This is a great way to have fun and support our charity as well. Hope to see you all there!

Masquerade Ball

On Saturday night, our masquerade will be the Monster Mash Masked Ball. Come dressed as your favorite monster and have a ghoulishly good time! Contestants will promenade in front of our dead-lee group of judges.

For those of you thinking of entering the masquerade this year, the costume competition will be informal. If you have never entered a competition before, the relaxed atmosphere will be perfect for you. Children are welcome to compete.

The competition categories will be:

- Best Historical
- Best Fantasy
- Best Science Fiction
- Best Group
- Best of Show
- Best Workmanship
- Best Technical Skill
- Best Novice
- Best Professional
- Children's Costuming

Awards will be given in both Novice And Professional categories where applicable. For further information, e-mail masquerade@baycon.org.

Special note to contestants this year: To make things easier for everyone, we are asking our contestants to contact our DJ if they desire music playing while they parade their costumes. First, please contact our DJ and ask if he has a copy of the musical score you need. If not, you will need to provide him a MP3 file or compact disc of the music and you will need to get it to him before Friday night of the convention. If you have any questions, please contact Gary at dj@baycon.org.

Charity Auction

Each year, BayCon selects a recipient for our charity drive that we feel has a direct impact on our local community. Last year, we selected the Friends of the California Air & Space Museum and were able to raise $4,478. This year, we are proud to present the Electronic Frontier Foundation, or EFF, as this year's charity.

EFF's mission is to preserve free expression by upholding rights to digital free expression from political, legal and technical threats, to help define digital privacy and empower people to maintain their privacy and control their digital identify, and to ensure computer systems are designed to respect people's rights, such as free speech, privacy and fair use.

If you would like to make a donation, please e-mail us at auction@baycon.org.

Drive-In Movie

Saturday and Sunday starting around 8 PM, or when the sun goes down, will be the perfect time for all of you vampires, ghosts, goblins and the attendees of Baycon to roam the earth, or hotel. Join us on the pool deck to enjoy some old film classics. We will provide the entertainment; you bring the fun. On Saturday evening, we will be featuring shorts from Bugs Bunny & friends. On Sunday night, get ready for Tim Allen and his crew of misfits in Galaxy Quest.

Sunday Night Dance

Sunday night's dance will be based on The Princess Bride. Try not to get lost in the fire swamp. Oh, and yeah, miracle pills will be available for those most in need, for a price of course. Dress in your favorite period or renaissance costume or just come as the Dread Pirate Roberts. But remember to behave, or we'll set the brute squad after you!

Hall Costuming

Costuming, costuming, costuming. We need costuming. It would not be a BayCon without hordes and hordes of costumed attendees walking the halls, so bring those costumes and please wear them. The attendees of BayCon love to look, ask questions about and take pictures of costumes. BayCon will have people scanning the halls for exceptional costuming, so be seen often. You never know where we will be; you might just get some acknowledgement.

Regency Dancing

In a BayCon tradition, Alan Winston will lead Regency Dancing on Friday and Sunday nights. The English Regency (1811-1820) was the era of Austen, Byron, Shelley, Nelson, and Wellington. It is the setting of Georgette Heyer and Patrick O'Brian's novels as well as Bernard Cornwell's Sharpe series. It was the age of Napoleon, and country dance was the ballroom dance of the time.

One of the piquant pleasures of Regency dancing at the convention is watching the dancers and their costumes. In addition to the many people in T-shirts and jeans, you'll see Miss Elizabeth Bennet waltzing with Darth Vader or Fitzwilliam Darcy with Commander Ivanova.

Even if you have never danced before, with Alan Winston's friendly, clear instruction you will soon be dancing the night away. You needn't bring a partner - we'll swap around after every dance. So you have no excuse. Come try something new.

Website

Lunatic E'Sex and Angela "Ember" Cooke
webmaster@baycon.org

The BayCon website is chock full of info on everything at the con. Not sure if your pet cat can roam the halls with you? Our Hotel page has the answers. Want to tell people about your science fiction/fantasy club or fanzine? That's what the Fan Tables page is all about. Think your new sabre would complete that swashbuckler's costume? Better check our Costuming page for the weapons policy first. There's even a printable registration form!

So if you need to know more, have friends who don't know enough about BayCon, or even if you're just confused, visit <http://www.baycon.org> today.

The BayCon website is brought to you by the letter Q, the number 9, and by large black lunar monoliths.

Art Show

Gary Bell artshow@baycon.org

The Art Show is half-sold. If you want to display, please get your information to us ASAP. All looks good for a great show.

There is a new address for sending art by UPS or FedEx in addition to the postal address that is already available. It is:

BayCon Art Show
c/o K.F. Uhland
1007 Peggy Lane
Menlo Park, CA 94025-1721

Make sure you require a signature on your package.

Artists' Alley is filling rapidly. There are 20 spaces total and over half are reserved. Artists' Alley is a wonderful bargain — 3 ft. of table space, a membership and a complimentary Art Show space (panel or 3-D display section). Contact the Art Show for details.

Fan Tables and BoFs

Kierin Bushore

BayCon 2000 welcomes fan organizations of all types. For fan clubs and other groups, fan table requests are now being taken. A fan table would allow your group a place to set up modest displays, pass out flyers, recruit new members, and answer questions about your organization. Get your requests in soon as the tables are filling up! Email fantables@baycon.org.

For those with other interests, requests for BoFs are also being taken. BoF stands for Birds of a Feather. They offer people with similar interests a chance to get together to discuss their hobbies and such. Email bofs@baycon.org.

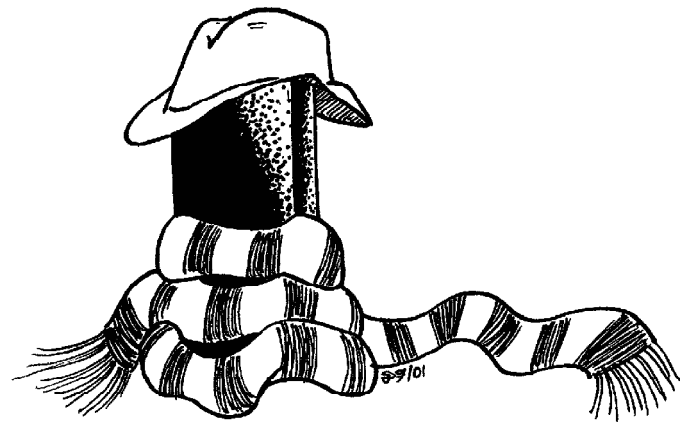

Internet Lounge

Mike Higashi

The Internet Lounge will have a new, larger location on the second floor, and longer hours, too! We will be located in the Boardroom. (You may recall this was the Con Suite last year.)

Like Linux, but hate the idea of going through installing it alone? Bring your system to the Linux Installfest, hosted in the Lounge from 10 am to 3 pm on Monday. A handful of knowledgeable fans will be around to help out and answer questions.

VA Linux Systems will once again loan BayCon the use of some of their systems. We are also looking into having some Macintosh systems available. Food and drink will not be permitted near the stations. See you there!

Boffer Wars

Damon Knight boffers@baycon.org

Oof!

Ack!

Thwap, thwap, thwap!

That's right, Boffer Wars is back. This year, we are planning to have some evening playtime for the younger crowd. If all goes as planned, the late night wars will be for grown-ups only.

For those of you who are unfamiliar with Boffer Wars, a word of explanation. The wars are padded weapons sparring. Players will be asked to sign a waiver before they take the field.

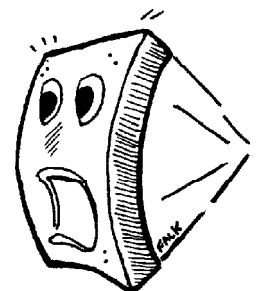

More information will be available at the convention.

Hello from the Weasels!

What can we say that we haven't already said a few dozen times? Buy a membership. Come to the con. It will be fun! We will give you a bee-yoo-tiful souvenir badge to commemorate your stay.

Okay, okay. The weasels are geared up and working like, well, like weasels to get everything done and to make your visit to the desk pleasant and short. See you there.

A Special Announcement from Programming

Attention!! We are looking for a victim, er, I mean volunteer. Michael Sarkisian will once again be doing his Makeup Prosthetics Panel this year and would like a volunteer to work on. If you would like to participate, please e-mail programming@baycon.org with "Attn: Makeup Demo" in the subject line. You must provide your membership number to volunteer for this activity. A volunteer will be chosen at random from responses received by May 15th, 2001.

Gofers

David Southwick

volunteers@baycon.org

BayCon 2001 needs gofers for this year's convention, plain and simple. A convention of BayCon's size can't run on official staff alone. We need you and other gofers to help keep the convention together. Gofers construct things, watch doors, tear things down, keep attendees happy, move things, keep track of what is going on at the convention, and all the other things that makes BayCon great. We need anyone that will be willing to work a little here and a little there. If you can help us over the weekend, every bit helps. Your enthusiasm and specialties are wanted and can be put to good use.

To be a gofer you must purchase a weekend membership. In return for working the convention, we provide you with food/snacks, crash space to sleep, all the sci-fi/anime/fantasy programming you can stomach watching, and a glimpse of what it is like behind the scenes of a large event such as this. Additionally, if you work 18 hours of the course of the convention (which isn't that difficult to accomplish over four days) we may give you either a free membership for BayCon 2002 or a reimbursement of your membership (after the convention, provided that the convention makes a profit).

If you want to gofer for BayCon 2001, return the gofer interest form, email us at volunteers@baycon.org, or find us in the Gofer Hole on the second floor of the hotel at BayCon 2001.
